STRONGMAN, MACK MIYA has broken the world's Bench Press record again . . . and again . . . and again . . . in fact he did it 4 times a day during the whole week of the Sportsman Show here in Toronto. His greatest lift, which was covered by both CBC-TV and CHUM radio, pushed the record up to 426 pounds.

To add to the drama, minutes after Mack appeared on the stage in his tight black pants with the gold seams, a beefy-looking heckler began shouting, "It's a trick! It's a lousy trick!"

The show's M.C., Red Sims offered the guy a free set of barbells if he could lift Mack's record weight. The heckler pushed his way through the crowd, did a neat vaudeville trip at the stage, finally climbed up and began loudly deriding Mack. The guy got under the weight rack, gritted his teeth, tensed his jowls and lifted. At least he attempted to. In a mighty display of 8-cylinder adrenal-gland-pumping, nothing moved; nothing that is, except the flow of blood into one meaty face.

After finally calling it quits, the heckler patted Mack on the back and said, shaking his head in honest admiration, "I just don't know how a little guy like you can do it!" To bad it didn't happen in Hollywood, the plant would have been a cinch for an Academy Award.

Now with the crowd's complete backing and interest, mighty Mack did a few quick push-ups, slipped under the weight rack, concentrated, and then bang, the world's record went up again for the fourth time during the night.

Odd thing about Mack, the older he gets, the stronger he seems to get. When asked to explain it, he gives people the most terrifying, the most discouraging answer. "Clean living."

"Ooooh!" cooed a couple of young hakujin girls ecstatically, "that Japanese guy!" as Mr. Universe, the great, Ken Togawa went through a muscle routine on the same show. Since winning the Big Title, Ken has put on more bulk and looks perfect. He has been asked to compete in another Mr. Universe title this year, but hasn't quite made up his mind.

Also on the show was Mack's Gym girl, Lorna Anderson. She picked up a couple of minature dumbbells, lay her 38-24-36 horizontally on the bench, slowly swung the weights around, and breathed beautifully, just beautifully. Never have I seen anyone breath so beautifully.

NISEI WRESTLER, Hank Morishita is the new all-Toronto Champion in his weight class. He won the championship bout last month in record time. During the past three weeks, Hank has been fighting in many little Ontario towns and recently took part in a 2-day tournament in Buffalo, New York. All this is in preparation for the Ontario and Canadian ahampionship meets to be held soon.

TOP CANADIAN architect student of a couple of years back, Mr. Gene Kinoshita was in Toronto recently on a 2-week holiday from studies at Yale. He says that after just one year of study there, his whole concept of architecture has taken a drastic change. But it seems his concepts of other things have not changed in the least bit. (Heh heh) (You little devil, Gene!)

Nisei To Head Tokyo Office Of Bank Of Nova Scotia

TORONTO.—F. William Nicks, President, The Bank of Nova Scotia, announced on his return from the Far East this week that the bank is opening a new representative office to serve that area with George J. Korenaga in charge. Mr. Korenaga will make his headquarters in Tokyo.

"The tempo of international trade is quickening," said Mr. Nicks, "New markets are opening up, old markets are changing. It is a time of opportunity for the alert, imaginative businessman, and on-the-spot bank representation is helpful to our customers. Mr. Korenaga is an international banker of considerable experience and his contacts in, and first-hand acquaintance with markets abroad and in the Far East in particular make him eminently suited for this latest addition to the international side of our operations."

Mr. Korenaga was born in Vancouver and graduated from the University of British Columbia. He subsequently took postgraduate work at Stanford University in California. During his banking career he has travelled widely, serving in New York, San Francisco, Osaka and Tokyo. At the time of his present appointment he was deputy manager, Foreign Department, The Sanwa Bank Limited, the third largest commercial bank in Japan.

Increase In Far East Sales Predicted For Canada

OTTAWA.—A 72 per cent increase in Canadian exports to the Far East in the first nine months of last year will be followed by even higher sales in 1962, Federal trade authorities predicted.

Between January and September, Canadian exports to the Far East totalled $311,000,000 an increase of $131,000,000 over the same period of 1960, J. L. Mutter, chief of the Asian and Middle east division reported in the latest issue of the Trade Department publication, Foreign Trade.

"This notable change in the position directly reflects much greater exports to two countries in the area—Japan, which is solidly entrenched as Canada's third largest market, and China, Mr. Mutter said.

C. M. Forsyth-Smith, Trade Commissioner in Hong Kong, pointed out that three successive years of crop failures had forced China to turn to Canada for an estimated $140,000,000 of grain during 1961, one of the major factors behind the increased trade with the Far East.

During 1961 the Chinese abandoned their concentration on heavy industry expansion inbred in their Marxist ideology to devote their energies to increasing agricultural production.

Given good weather, there was every likelihood their production of crops would increase in the year ahead, but there still remained a good chance that total Canadian exports to China in 1962 would exceed those for this year. China would continue to require grain and would probably become an increasing buyer of metals as it turned back to greater industrial expansion.

While exports to the Far East rose substantially, imports in the first nine months of the year were down $7,000,000 to $118,000,000.

A. P. Bissonnet, Canadian commercial counsellor in Tokyo, estimated the Japanese economy would increase about 5 per cent in 1962, providing a still further increase in demand for Canadian goods. In the first nine months of last year Canadian exports rose 33 per cent, Japanese sales to Canada climbed only fractionally.

China's foreign exchange reserves were estimated at the beginning of 1961 to amount to only $300,000,000. Mr. Mutter suggested the Chinese were operating close to the line of their foreign exchange reserves at all times, employing credit and other arrangements to keep the wolf from the door.

Would Be Suicide Calls Attention To Eta

TOKYO.—"I am a common ordinary young man," the letter said. "By the time this letter reaches you, I will have committed suicide."

The writer of this letter to the national-circulation Mainichi newspaper Kyoto office was no ordinary young man. And he did not succeed in his suicide attempt, although he tried mightily.

He was one of Japan's eta, or "buraku" (literally "bloc," or segregated group) the lowest of the low classes.

Behind the attempted suicide of this anonymous young man and his "death notice" to the newspaper was a story of Japan's segregation problem and a love that could not be.

For centuries, the eta, Japan's "untouchables," have known only discrimination and social obstracism. With the new-found civil freedoms brought by the American occupation the eta was elevated by law to a status equal to that of any citizen. The law, in fact, provided that they be identified as "shin haemin" (new citizen).

It was this "new citizen" label that identified the annonymous young man as one of the "buraku" people deprived him of a bride and drove him to attempted suicide in protest against the segregation that a law could not end.

"I fell in love with a girl," he said in the letter, "and after a year and a half of courting, the date for our wedding was set."

"Her family suddenly rejected me and opposed our marriage after they found out that I came from the segregated buraku community. I talked this over again and again with her family but her mother would not permit our marriage."

The family, in checking the background of the prospective in-law, as is customary in Japan, discovered that he was a "new citizen" and that was that. Law or no law he was not on their level.

"I earned myself a reputation as a 'nice fellow' where I work and at my boarding house.

"My friends who had received me with smiles suddenly turned their back on me, saying that my blood is unclear because I am a 'buraku' man . . . I am as Japanese as they are, but I am not accepted just because I come from a 'buraku' community.

"What difference is there between us?" he asked. My vexation and plight are shared by three million 'buraku' people who are in the same circumstances as I.

"Please make a story of my death," the letter to the paper pleaded, "Please make a story of my death, and put the matter to the judgment of the public."

The end of the story is that a Mainichi reporter rushed to the man's home, found him unconscious from an overdose of sleeping pills and took him to a hospital. Doctors said his condition was critical but he would live as an eta, without the bride he sought.

His name was not disclosed because the Mainichi editors said it would only subject him to further discrimination by acquaintances who might not know of this eta status.

TJCCA Meeting Wed.

Japanese Fishermen Turn To Angling

TOKYO.—The Japanese who for centuries have fished to survive, are turning in millions to angling for pleasure.

Commercial fishing which has fishing fleets ranging from the Arctic to the Antarctic and from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

But the country's new-found prosperity and consequent leisure have developed a new type of fisherman—the angler and sportsman.

Today there are about 8,000,000 anglers in Japan.

Young people by the thousands have adopted the sport, once considered the pastime of elderly folk, and line Japan's rocky coastline, wade through thousands of mountain streams, stand on the edges of lakes and perch precariously on the sides of bobbing boats.

In their trail, they have brought flourishing businesses. Weekly and monthly magazines for the angler have come out.

An electrical company has produced a midget angling aid in the form of a transistorized fish finder, which sends out sound waves through the water and records them on graph paper when they rebound from the sea bottom, or off schools of fish. The graph tells the angler where to fish.

Fish hatcheries have been set up and are being used to restock lakes and rivers.

Newspapers, radio and television help the angler to choose the best places for his weekend's fishing by publishing and announcing weather conditions and special tips for fishermen.

寺の町

左に折れてまっすぐつきあたると天眼寺。北へならんで、本寿寺、瑞松寺、臨江寺と、小さな寺院の土塀がつらなる。ここから、奥は、すべて、寺である。南は、松平伊豆守の宏壮な屋敷である。その高い白壁塀に沿うて、善光寺前町がつづいている。抜け出たところは、谷中八軒町である。町人と浪人者たちが、目ざしたのは、この谷中八軒町の一隅であった。

攻撃

立派な屋敷であった。いずれは、名ある人物の所有であったろうが、今は、門札も出ていない。しかし、手入れはゆきとどき、門前に、草一本も生えていないほうきの跡のついた白砂が獅子口のついた唐破風の影をはわせて、すがすがしい。

町人と浪人者たちは、この屋敷のはすむかいにある杉木立に身をひそめた。それを見とどけた庄吉は、屋敷につづいた高い石垣の凹みへ、ぺったりと身を吸いつけた。うしろは、上野山内である。石垣の上にそびえた太い樹木のおかげで、ここは、暗く、庄吉は、身の動きが、むかいの四人にさとられぬ安心があった。

陽ざしは、ちょうど、ひろい往還のまん中を、明暗ふたつに割っていたのである。

「兄貴」

三次の声が、頭上でした。庄吉が、見あげると、三次は、石垣に腹ばい、だれさがった灌木のかげにかくれていた。

「これを――」

そうっとおろしたのは木刀であった。庄吉が、朝はやく、そこにかくしておき、三次に知らせておいたのであった。

「習った技をふるうのは、今がはじめてだ。やってみなけりゃわからねえ」

木刀をにぎりしめて、庄吉は、ふっと片頬をゆるめた。自分に、二年間、みっちり剣術を教えこんでくれた梅津長門の木刀の、構えた瞬間の眼眸を思い泛べたのである。茫洋として、とらえどころのない眼眸であった。相手が何者であろうと、一切それを脳裡からはらいさった無念無想の静けさを湛えて、まばたきもしなかった。――あの澄んだ目こそ、極意であると、庄吉は知っていた。――ようし――おれだって、あの半分ぐらいの平静さで、たたかってみせるぞ!

やがて――。その屋敷の潜門の戸が開いた。出て来たのは、腰元風の地味なよそおいをした若い娘であった。天王寺の鐘が鳴ってしばらく経ったこの時刻、この娘が、使いに出るのが日課であった。庄吉も知っていたが、杉木立にかくれている四人も知っていた。

娘は、医者のところへ、薬を取りに行くのであった。色の白い、頸すじの細い見るから腺病質らしい娘であった。庄吉は、彼女自身の薬をもらいに行くのではないか、と疑ったほどであった。しかし、そのすべてがほっそりした姿を、庄吉は、心から美しいと思っていたのである。うつ向いてあるき出した娘の顔には、たしかに、庄吉のような男を惹きつける淋しいかげがあった

△晩市生れ、ビーシー大學を卒業して渡日、現在三和銀行外國課次長の是永壽太郎氏（五四）はこのほどバンク・ノヴァ・スコシアの極東地區主任代理人に任命され、東京にオフィスを設けて活動することになったと同銀行のニックス総裁が今週發表した。日系カナダ人がカナダ有力銀行の地域代理人になったのは是永氏が最初である。

△ニックス総裁は是永氏任命について大要次のように述べている。

國際貿易のテンポは急速化し、新市場が開拓され舊市場は變遷しつつある折柄、顧客に現地で便宜を與える敏腕で有能な實業家をおくことは時宜に適したことで、是永氏は國際銀行家として相當の經驗を持ち、とくに極東市場に精通しているので當行の國際運營上に有益な人材を得たものとして喜ばしい。

トロント市 明治の末兒

△二世中年層の人達――現日系会館理事らを指して『一世と比べものにならぬ程たくえつしています』と賞讃、敬服しているという新々出馬の女人は『會館建設』、右のエラ物によつて實現されるものと信じる次第です』とあり、明日にもスタートしそうな宣傳もあるが、明治坊にいわせると『遠なお遠し會館』となり、再検討する必要があると考えられる、となつていて、市井の小市民風情豚兒らには初耳の、高利にくわれるという資金捻出案が示され『土台からやり直せ』といわれているようです。これが一世と比べものにならぬ程たくえつしていますといわれるエラ物の仕事なのでしょうか。

△二世中年層のお歴々の足許へもよれない俗物の鈍兒揃いかのように、新人女人がいうわれ等の先輩一世諸氏達は、當今のように『日本文化』などとはいわれなかつたようだが、今日という時代とは比べものにならない時勢の中で、バンクーバー市には『日本人ホール』を建て、教會堂を持ち地方に於ても各自の必要を満たすホールや會場を建設してきた。

△新人希望と女人希望とのはなしにならぬ相違はどういうことなのですか。ジョウダンも休み休みにいつてもらいたい、と豚兒輩がいうのは生意氣にすぎるい方でしょうか。

―〇―

『新味がない』と女人がいえば『活力がない』と明治坊さんはいう。女人自らが會のクラブのと御多忙な朝夕も、新人作文の語るところによれば、己れが幸福を天下に吹聴する隠居婆さんのキルタイムで『男性役員の言行観察、若返り法』の爲の道具か玩具の會や團体の如くで、そんなのが新味のなんのといつたりするのはどんなものでしょう。地上をはえつくばつて、しがない朝夕を暮らしている豚兒輩には察知しかねる雲上の境地なのです。

！かも、彼女自らが新人會長である。あるクラブは副會長、幹事、文化部長のすべてが昨年度來の新人選出と承わつたのであるが、そこでは新味があり、新風が吹いているわけではありませんか。もし、そういうことにならなかつたとすれば、どうしたことかと、ひとききでもお考えになつたことがあるでしょうか。

一世と比べものにならぬ程たくえつした二世あり―という日には、新味のなんのといわずに、おねおねと生きながらえていることの方が好ましい、ということにはなりませんか。

『活力』がないから、ああしろ、そうしろという明治坊さんも同様に『先の短い余生（云々といつて）二世の活動に必要な場合は物質的援助をして、彼等の發展を望むことが賢明ではないか』――と。相當に出せるモノをお持ちに相違ない。新人出馬希望のご夫人同様にゆつたり構えてござるが、そうして二世以外の日系人どものすべてが、明治坊いう如くであれ――とのごセンタクと心得るが、いわれるように二世ならざる明治の千軍万馬の先輩諸氏からその末席を承る豚兒輩までが、じやんじやんと活氣を出して、どうしろといわれるのですか。

トロント日系人社會のあれこれが、いつたりきたり時にはいつたりいつたり、となつて明治坊さんのみる如く『企画』が進まないのは歴史と會館と、團体併立への、よつて以つて來たす所以（ゆえん）といわれるが

△日系人歴史は全加の一万數千弗、會館はトロントの數十万弗で、仕事の質が異り、ケタが違う。そうして、明治坊さんは『同じ主旨目的の團体併立』ときめているが、本當にそんなものなのでしようか。

――トロントの日系人社會が、なにごとについてももやもやしていて、しまりがないといわれる現状は、ご兩人のご高見の如くかも知れませんが、以上ご兩所のご文章を再録して頂いた、この拙文が示す、なんともかんとも判りかねる言辭が一層とわれ等の社會をあいまい模糊の境地へと導くことにはならないでしょうか。

――暴言多謝。（おわり）

『村のお嫁入り』（二）

□反對に役に立たなかつた道具は――。張板、裁ち板ミシンがあげられました。いいものはせんたくに出すし、それほどでもないものは洗つてアイロンをかけたらすぐ縫つてしまう。重い裁ち板を出してゆつくり縫物をする時間もなく、ボール紙の裁ち板の方がずつと便利、というわけで張り板や裁ち板は天井に上げつぱなしという家がほとんどでした。

□またミシンも、娘時代に自分のものくらい縫つた人も、ほとんどつくろいものくらいにしか使つていないようです。一つのものを仕上げるひまもないし、既製品が安く出まわつている世いもありましょう。とくにとつぎ先に娘さんがいる場合など、ミシンは二重になつて、カバーをかけられたまま何年も捨てておかれる運命です。

□和服も同じ。和服は里歸りや祝儀、不祝儀のとき着るだけですから、いいものが少しあればいい。それよりふだん着のセーターや洋服を。思い切つて着物の數を少なくして、その分を貯金にして持つてきて必要に應じて買う方が、流行おくれにならず、賢いやり方ではないかということでした。

□また、ほとんどのお嫁さんが、『娘時代に考えて心配していたのよりずつと樂しい生活だつた。相手の人か家によるのはもちろんだけれど、本當にしつかり働く氣で來れば、むしろサラリーマンよりもよいのではないかと思う』と農家の生活を肯定していました。

査證申請ラッシュ見られず

トロントの朝刊紙『グローブ・アンド・メール』三月二十七日紙上に『日本による査證申請ラッシュはない』という見出しで大要次の如き東京發記事をかかげた。許可を得ての要約——。

△カナダの新移民政策のニュースは、人でごった返しのこの島國に大した反響をもたらしていない。外務省のスポークスマンは、カナダが保持してきた人種差別的移民法を取り除いたことには好感をよせてはいるが、いまなお、かかる差別が完全になくなったのではないことを指摘している。

△歐州、中近東および米國からは、カナダ人となった人々は自由に親類を呼寄せられるが、東洋國からの呼寄せには一定のワクが設けられているのは、その一例である。しかし、東洋國からも條件がそろえば呼寄せでなく、單獨でカナダ移民を申請し得るとなったことは一歩前進である。

△北米は東洋人にとって理想鄕であるので、カナダ市民權申請は過去數年來、山積してはいるものの、今回の移民法改正でどっとカナダ移民申請のラッシュはみられず、カナダ大使館と外務省を調べたところでは、まだ一件の申請もないことが明らかとされている。

△もしこの移民法改正が終戰直後に實施されていたとすれば、少くとも數千人のカナダ移民希望者があったであろうが、いまの日本のように、安定した經濟狀態にあるとき、右も左もわからぬカナダに移住して一旗あげる努力をしようとする者は當然少いとみるべきであろう。

△またカナダの技術者移民歡迎という點になると、東洋一の工業國である日本からの技術者移民申請が多くなければならないのに、一人もそれを今のところ希望していないのは、カナダの不安定な就職狀態も原因の一つとみられるべきである。

△日本では一度、會社に入社して仕事口をとれば、そこがほとんど永久的職場となり、仕事を失う心配はなく、家族的フンイキにつつまれているのが普通である。カナダのように職さがしの心配はないのである。

△外務省當局者は技術者移民について、その條件審査にあたる移民官の胸一つで合格不合格になる恐れがあり、どこを基準とするのかもハッキリしていない。日本側ではいまのところ『靜觀』という態度をとっている。

ト大學の半數學生は在學資格のない者だ

△トロント大學生の半數は在學すべき資格者でなく實をいえば大學から追っ拂ってしまいたいものだとトロント大學哲學科教授、マーカス・ロング氏が今週ト市の會合で述べて大きな反響を呼んでいる。

△ロング教授は、ト大學に通っている學生の約半數は智能的には資格はあろうが勉強して身につけようという意慾がなく、學位さえとればよい、といった安易な氣持ちで通學している。そして頭腦のよい青年が事情で大學にいけない者があるというのは大きな欠陷であるといっている。

△同教授は女學生は大學にいって、よいハズバンドをみつけようというほかに理由を持たない者が多いと斷じ、學位を得てから、本當の人生勉強がはじまるのだといっている。

土屋大使が辭任

比島大統領との關係が惡く

【東京時事通信】土屋フィリッピン大使はこのほど辭意を表明した。二十八日午後羽田着のカンタス航空機で歸國ののち辭任する。同大使は大使館内の意見不一致を理由にあげているが、さきの大統領選擧でマカパガル氏が當選して以來、大統領との關係がよくなかったともいわれる。

このほどマニラを訪問した大宅壯一氏が在住日本人から得た情報を基礎として、土屋大使の日本人間における人氣は惡く、同大使の更迭を要請していると有力新聞に寄稿したが、當時、外務省はそんな事實はないと否定していた。

全加姙婦に警告

【ウイニペッグ發】當市在住の姙婦が懷姙中、ドクターのすすめで鎭靜劑『サリドミド』を使用した結果、このほど不具兒を出產したことが問題化し、全加でこの鎭靜劑の使用を當局が禁止した。この婦人が生んだ赤ん坊は手足の一部が不完全で、まったくのカタワ。同婦人を世話したドクターもこの藥を使用したことが、かかる結果を招いたと述べており、全加の姙婦が、姙娠中にこの藥を用いておれば、赤ん坊はいずれも不具兒になるだろうと警告している。

國内機料金まちまち

當局は成行きを靜觀

【オタワ發】四月一日からカナダの航空旅客者は最善のバーゲンを利用することができる。すなわちCPAは熟考の結果、TCA國内機エコノミー級料金を四月一日からの値上げに協調せず、現行レートを持續し、TCAより安料金を提供して旅客吸收をはかることになっている。

△カナダ太平洋航空を使うとモ市ト市間で三弗、カナダ横斷だと十弗の節約になるわけで、これではトランス・カナダは到底乘客をふやすどころか、失うこと明らかであるが、いまのところ空輸局では成行きを靜觀するとの態度にでるもようである。

No Visa Rush By Japanese

By DOUGLAS FORRESTER
from the Globe and Mail

TOKYO.—The news of Canada's new immigration policy has been received by the people of these overcrowded islands with something less than wild enthusiasm. Spokesmen at the Japanese Foreign Office have expressed their pleasure at the removal of most of the racial prejudice which marred the old Immigration Act, but are quick to point out that such prejudice has not been entirely removed in the new act.

While prospective immigrants from Europe, the Near East and the Americas can be sponsored by any relatives who are now Canadian citizens, those from the rest of the world who desire entry into Canada must be sponsored by close relatives such as fathers, mothers, sons or daughters. However, it is recognized that the new regulations for unsponsored immigrants, which will judge the fitness of new Canadians on the basis of their skills and education, are a definite step forward.

While it may be true that the vast majority of the teeming millions of the Orient look upon North America as a Utopian paradise in which residents would solve all problems, and while it might be thought that a tremendous backlog of applicants for Canadian citizenship would have been built up over the years, here in Japan, at least, the announcement of the new regulations has resulted in no rush of requests for immigrant visas. In fact, a check with the Canadian Embassy and with the Japanese Foreign Office failed to uncover a single applicant since the changes were announced.

Had the now regulations been in effect at the end of the Pacific War there is no doubt that thousands of Japanese would have applied for Canadian citizenship. At that time Japan was in such a deplorable economic situation that few could visualize a future promising anything more than bare subsistence. Now, however, and most particularly for those Japanese whose qualifications would render them acceptable immigrants, the standard of living and future prospects in their own country are too attractive for such skilled and educated persons to consider leaving Japan permanently.

It is undoubtedly true that of all Asiatic nations Japan could provide by far the highest percentage of applicants who could meet the requirements of the new Immigration Act. But to leave the relative security of their native land and venture into the unknown with all its attendant differences in language and custom, would seem to be a risky undertaking.

Traditionally rigid, Japanese society does offer security and unlike North Americans, who will change jobs and move about the country from city to city at the drop of a hat or the suggestion of better job opportunities, almost all Japanese expect to spend the whole of their working life with one company. Indeed, the employer becomes almost a father figure.

Officials of the Japanese Foreign Office, in referring to the new Canadian Immigration regulations, were not slow in pointing out that the references to skill, education, and specific abilities of prospective immigrants which might prove of value to Canadian society were couched in such vague terms that interpretation can be altered, if necessary, to existing economic conditions in Canada as they vary from time to time. In other words, there is no hard and fast definition of just what skills, etc. will be considered as sufficient to guarantee admission as prospective Canadian citizens. So, until there has been official reaction to some concrete applications from Japan, the attitude here is one of "wait and see."

Hamada Wins Scoring Race, Lewis Top Goalie

TORONTO.—Regular season's play came to a close last week in the Toronto Nisei Hockey League with Komori Auto Body and Yamada Studio ending the year on winning notes.

Komori edged league champion Mickey Sato 3-2, while Yamada clinched second spot with a 4-3 decision over Main Auto Body.

Main Auto's speedster, Gen Hamada captured the scoring crown going away, as he picked up two points to raise his winning mark to 34 points on 16 goals and 18 assists. Runner-up Joe Wakayama, who was four points behind Hamada going into Sunday's play, failed to register a point and wound up in second slot with 28 points on a league leading 19 goals and nine assists. Mickey Sato captain, Satch Fujimoto ended up in third place with 11 goals and 15 assists for 26 points.

In the tight race for best goalie honors, Al Lewis of Mickey Sato nosed out Yamada's Bob Yoshiki 69 goals against to 71 goals against to take home the Nisei Leagues version of the Vezina Trophy. Jerry Yamashita of Komori Auto Body ran a close third with 74 goals against.

In last Sunday's games, last place Komori Auto out-played Mickey Sato in a fast moving game to come out on top 3-2.

Roy Orida hit in the first period on a pass from defenceman Major Fukumoto to give Komori a 1-0 lead. Johnny Kitamura followed up with a goal to make it two to nil as he teamed with Bob Masukawa to knock the puck past Main goalie Al Lewis.

However, the Insurancemen fought back in the second period to cut the margin in half as Rick Yoshida cashed in a marker with help from Harold Baba and Lefty Sasaki. Then early in the final frame Paul Ikenouye picked up a loose puck in the Komori end after Satch Fujimoto had made a length of the ice rush, and lashed a close in shot to deadlock the game at 2-2.

But, Komori came back minutes later as Wayne Kimura picked up Bob Masukawa's rebound to knock the rubber into the Mickey Sato cage to give the Red and White team a 3-2 lead. From here Komori checked tightly and even threatened to take a bigger lead as they bounced the puck off the post a couple of times as they skated away to their win.

Yamada Studio won their seesaw battle for second place with Main Auto Body as they edged the east-end Auto Shop 4-3.

Captain Ted Kakino paced the Photographers with his three-goal performance while defenceman Mel Tsuji notched the other goal. Gen Hamada, Al Masukawa and Dave Ishikawa netted goals for Main. Hamada also earned an assist to finish the season atop the scoring race with 34 points.

Kakino scored all of his three goals in the first period as Yamada's broke out fast. However, Main came back slowly, as Hamada and Masukawa tallied in the middle stanza to bring them within a goal of the Photographers.

Mel Tsuji, who had been playing an outstanding game on the Yamada blueline, was finally rewarded on one of his ice-long rushes as he tallied to open the third period and give Yamada a comfortable two goal lead.

Late in the game Dave Ishikawa broke through the Yamada defence to beat Yamada goalie Bob Yoshiki and round out the scoring for the night.

As a result of last Sunday's action, league champion Mickey Sato will take on third place Main Auto, while second place Yamada plays fourth place Komori in the semi-finals. Both games will be two-game total goals series. The winners will meet in a best two of three series to determine the winner of the Connie Tanaka Memorial Trophy, emblematic of the Toronto Nisei Hockey League play-off champions.

PLEASE NOTE: Game time for play-off games will start one hour EARLIER. The first game will take place at 4:00 P.M., second game at 5:00 P.M.

RAFFLE

The raffle committee under the able chairmanship of Min Hagino will undertake to equal or top last year's successful undertaking.

Tickets are now ready for distribution and will be sold through members and the co-operation of the various JC organizations in Toronto.

First prize is an air trip to Japan for two, plus $500.00 cash spending money. Or if the winner wishes to forego the trip, he will receive $2000.00 cash.

Holder of the second prize ticket will take home a colour TV set, while the third prize ticket claims a stereo hi-fi.

Nor will the seller of the prize winning tickets be forgotten. In previous years the first prize ticket seller only was rewarded. This year, all three salesmen will receive handsome bonuses of $300.00, $150.00 and $50.00 respectively.

The climax, the draw, will take place at the annual JCCA community picnic to be held in the early summer.

The raffle committee would be grateful as in the past, for any co-operation from the various organizations, members and others, connected with the selling of the raffle tickets.

CHERRY TREES

Park Board has informed the Centre, that 2000 cherry trees be planted this spring. This will add to the 200 trees already planted two years ago at High Park.

U.S. Tanker Largest Ever Built In Japan

TOKYO.—An American oil company has placed an order for a mammoth tanker of 93,000 tons dead weight, the largest ship ever to be built in Japan for use by a foreign nation.

The Sasebo Heavy Industries Company announced last week the signing of a $16 million contract to build the tanker for Mobil Taukships Ltd., a subsidiary of the Socony Mobil Oil Co.

Keel for the vessel will be laid next September in the ship building firm's yard at Sasebo, on Japan's southern island of Kyushu.
